

Mental Health and Disabilities Services Redesign Service System and Data Statistical information Integration Workgroup

Systems Reports and Business Requirements Presentations

August 7, 2012

STATE FACILITIES

What data is collected?

Patient and resident treatment data

Who is collected from?

Patients and residents of state mental health institutes (MHIs) or state resource centers (SRCs)

What type of system does it go into?

Electronic Medical Record

What populations does it collect?

- Persons with mental illness served by MHIs
- Persons with a substance use disorder served by Mt. Pleasant
- Persons served in the gero-psychiatric program at Clarinda
- Persons community to the civil commitment unit for sexual offenders
- Persons with an intellectual disability served by the SRCs

What is the data used for?

- Patient and resident treatment
- Can be used to measures of certain types of outcomes or process measures such as:
 - Demographic data
 - Admission and readmission rates (Utilization rates)
 - Average Length of Stay
 - Seclusion and restraint rates